Natural Products Expo Asia – Capturing the growing market of natural, organic and healthcare products & supplies

Asia has great untapped potential – at a time when many businesses are shrinking, the natural, organic and healthy products market continues to increase. Natural Products Expo Asia is the premier platform to meet this emerging market by providing measurable results and market exposure throughout the Asia Pacific region. Each summer, thousands of industry's most important executives and buyers assemble at Natural Products Expo Asia in Hong Kong, the gateway to China and South East Asia, to investigate the latest products, industry trends and practices to grow their health business.
